INTRAMURAL CHAMPS --- Boston State students John Rogan of Somerville and Dinah Macklin of Mattapan, display trophies which they received after winning the Miller Beer One-on-One basketball competition at Boston State College. The competition was sponsored by Burke Distributing Corp. of Randolph. The Boston State duo advanced to the quarter finals of the Miller Beer Mixed Two-on-Two basketball tournament and were matched against Curry College in a two-out-of-three series. The members of the championship team each will receive a $200.00 scholarship. The members of the runner-up team each will be awarded a $100.00 scholarship. Eight Greater Boston colleges are participating in the tournament. They are Brandeis, MIT, Boston State, Curry, Boston College, Suffolk, Babson and Bentley.

Football

The 1979 edition of Boston State Football was very aptly nicknamed the "record breakers", as the team just about rewrote the offensive grid records.

Topping the list was junior quarterback, John Rogan of Somerville. In the nine Warrior games, Rogan completed 140 of 304 passes (both school records) for 2156 yards, a new all time New England record. Three times Rogan threw for over 300 yards in a game. In the Warriors 36-34 loss to New Haven ran up 419 yards in the air. Incidentally that game has been called the most exciting ever played in the New England Football Conference. Receiver, Scott Langton, likewise a junior from Somerville, also set a couple of new Boston Records, catching 42 passes for 744 yards. Freshman Mark Bellis, in the Warriors final game against Bridgewater, caught four passes for 202 yards, another new single game record for Boston State Football. Included in those 202 yards, was a 91 yard scoring bomb from Rogan, the longest scoring play in the Warrior record book. Sophomore placekicker John Carlson also put his name, or toe, into the Warrior record book, hitting on 8 field goals to establish a new Boston record.

Looking to post season honors, Langton and defensive end Chuck Rossetti were named to the E.C.A.C. - All New England team for Division III, while this duo joined Rogan, offensive guard Nat Carr, defensive tackle Dave Keefe and John Carlson made the New England Football Conference All-Star team. Although they posted a 4-5 season mark, the 1979 Warrior Football team, played some of the most thrilling and appealing football of any Boston State Football team.

Soccer

Back - Brian Donovan, Vincent DiNunno, Charlie Kerastaris, Steven MacDonald, Anthony Hamlett, Wade Williams, Giovanni Pacini, Peter Bregianos, Hugo Loza, Coach Fran Doyle. Front - Ron Salomon, Fernando Pinto, Petros Kouraklis, Vincent Trodella, Richard Vogel, Joe O'Toole, Spencer Orne, Vincent Lorenzano, Robert Morton

Under first year head coach Fran Doyle the Boston State College Varsity Soccer team posted a 5-5-1 overall record, and a 4-3-1 mark in Mass. State College Conference play. Both marks were the best Soccer records in five seasons.

The team placed one player on the Mass. State College All Conference team, Petros Kouraklis. A senior, Petros was also the teams hgh scorer with 7 goals and 2 assists. Next in line was Spencer Orne with 5 goals and 3 assists, while Sebastian Fernandes was next with 1 goal and 4 assists. The 1979 edition of Boston State Soccer possessed some of the best enthusiasm and desire of any recent team due in large part to Coach Doyle, and a solid nucleus of players.

The season was highlighted by a 2-0 win over perennial powerhouse North Adams State. North Adams had won 19 Mass. State College Conference games in a row up to their loss to the Warriors.

Tennis

Top - Mary Antonellis, Joan Walsh, Cathy McLaughlin, Patty Haas, Coach Sheryl Allen. Bottom - Claire Rossi, Patty Beagan, Liz Poitras

The Warrior Women's tennis team continued their fine winning tradition this season under first year coach Sheryl Allen. The team compiled an overall record of 10-5, and were 5-1 in Mass. State College Conference play, good enough for a first place tie with Westfield State. The effort put forth by the Warriors girls is even more remarkable when one considers that the team plays only two home matches, and the college has no court facilities of their own.

Three members of the team were named to the Mass. State College All-Conference team, Mary Antonellis, Liz Poitras and Pat Beagan. Antonellis, a senior from Waltham, compiled a 7-2 mark as the teams number one singles player, while Beagan, a Watertown native, had a singles record of 11-3, and a doubles total of 8-3. Liz Poitras, from Lowell, had, like Beagan, an 11-3 mark in singles and an 8-2 record in the doubles area.

In addition to the regular season, several of the girls participated in the New Englands, notably, Beagan, and Poitras, and in the Mass. State College tournament, Mary Antonellis advanced to the finals of the singles competition.

But with any successful season, it was a team effort, with Cathy McLaughlin, Joan Walsh, Ellen Clark, and Claire Rossi also performing well in their matches.

Cross Country

The Boston State Cross Country team, under first year coach Joe Kolb, continued their domination of the Mass. State College Athletic Conference winning their fifth title in a row, and sixth in the past eight years. The team also qualified for the N.C.A.A. National Championship that were held at Augustana College, Rock Island, Ill.

Without a doubt the outstanding performer for the Warriors was Brookline native Steve Hunt. A senior, Hunt captured not only the Codfish Crown, the Mass. State Conference, and the N.C.A.A. qualifier, but was the National Champion for Division III. Of note, is the fact that at the Nationals Hunt was competing against the best Division III runners in the country.

In addition to Hunts exploits, the Warriors received outstanding efforts from John Savill, Bob Smith, Jack Fahey, Lou Ristaino, and Mario Fusco.

Boston State's Womens Ice Hockey Team was founded in 1977 by Michelle Pacetti and Cindy Collins. Coach Kip Dunkle is a student at Boston University and is coaching on a volunteer basis. Highlights of the Boston State Season included attending the Princeton Tournament and winning the championship in triple overtime. They next made it to the finals by defeating Courland University. They competed against the University of New Hampshire's All Star Team and were only defeated by two goals. This was a great season for our girls.

Men's Basketball 1979-1980

In winning their last five games in a row, the 1979-1980 edition of Warrior Mens Basketball closed out the season in fourth place in Mass. State College Conference, with a mark of 10-6. Coach Kevin Dowd did a superb job in bringing the team in with a solid finish. The season was one filled with close games, as out of the fourteen games in the team lost, 10 were by a total of 13 points. In addition to the season ending surge, the club also won the Codfish Bowl, by defeating E.N.C. 79-71 in the finals. Unquestionably, the highlight of the season was the outstanding play of Co-Captain Ray Buckland. Ray averaged 27.8 points per game to set a new school record and was the leading scorer in the country among Division III players at various times. Another bright light was the play of Junior, Paul Kirby. In his first year for the Warriors Kirby averaged 20 points per game and was a very welcome addition to the program . . . Senior Co-Captain Don Chiuve, likewise had a solid and steady season for the Quarriors.

Wrestling Team Rolls

In terms of winning streaks, the Warrior Wrestling team is riding the crest of a very fulfilling one, as the club has put together five in a row, entering their match with M.I.T.

The "Grapplers" have gained wins over Maine Maritime, U. Maine (Orono), Bowdoin, Brown and Emerson. The victories have raised the club to 6-5, after being 1-5 at one point in the season.

players will be back next season, so the way we are going, Boston State could very well move into the upper levels of New England College Wrestlers."

"We certainly have been getting some outstanding efforts from the kids," said Coach Phil Gormley, they have been working very hard, and have improved their skills tremendously since the beginning of the season." In particular, Gormley had words of praise for Mike Ashe, Grayel Farris, Lothar Batchelder and Andy Lore. "These guys have been at the core of the effort," added Gormley, "along with Jim Hammond, Tim Fistori, Jay Cullanane and all the guys." Gormley, himself a former Warrior standout went on to say, "And most of these

Personal Snapshots

A 1970 graduate of Boston State College, WBZ-TV's Dan Rea, a practicing attorney, combines his television work and his knowledge of the law into a unique reporting style.

While attending Boston State College, Dan majored in English and minored in Secondary Education. As a student he was on the hockey and baseball team for two years. He then attended Boston University Law School and graduated in 1974.

Rea joined WBZ-TV in January 1976, while continuing to host the Dan Rea Show on WBZ Radio, a position he held from February 1974 through September 1976. In addition he wrote a regular column for the Boston Globe from 1971-1975.

Dan feels that his education at Boston State College made him aware of what he wanted in life and helped him discover his own identity.

Mel King

Representative Mel King

After receiving his M. Ed. from Boston Teachers College (Boston State), Mel continued his education at several other institutions. Boston State is proud in its recognition of this fact and his high level of achievement in the community.

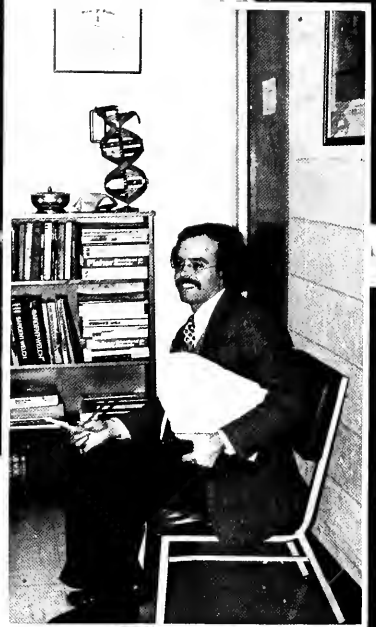

His interest and concentration has been in the development of a way of life acceptable and equitable for all. Working on numerous committees, organizations, ad hoc formations, impromptu neighborhood groups, he has established through his days and many nights of meetings a community which is beginning to communicate. The volume of interaction has been lively in some areas of the country. Mel feels definite progress is being made in the "south" and the resistance to change is breaking down slowly in the "north". The level of frustration is high for minorities in their attempts to enter and change the top positions in government and academia.

The countless number of positions in academia, the community and government, his travels in the south and the rest of the country and his strong family upbringing, have produced a strong and philosophical Mel King. Mel provides quiet leadership and support towards solving Boston's racial problems through his ideas promulgated in articles and his stands as representative of the Fourth Suffolk District.

Frank Ritchie 1st Vice President of Student Government Association who is also president of the Celtic Club is a graduating senior of the college. Before attending Boston State College he was a member of the Boston Police Dept. Frank is presently Bail Commissioner of Suffolk County, which is alifetime appointment. He has attended Northeastern University and Emerson College, he is overwhelmed by students at Boston State not only y their desire to achieve scholastically but because the majority also hold down full time jobs.

Frank has recently been appointed to the Library Trust Fund. This committee handles the Kelley Scholarship Fund and Bookstore Fund.

Frank feels that if it wasn't for his lovely wife Cecelia, who is in the Nursing Program that he would not have returned to school to complete his college education.

Frank owes it all to her.

Paul Fernandez is the college co-ordinator for Boston State College. He is a member of the Boston Student Advisory Commission to the State Board of Trustee.

Paul is a former Army Officer in the Air Defense Missiles Dept. He is currently a part time engineer and a full time student in the engineering program Paul is involved in the community through the Coast Guard Auxillary, Community education program and their boating safety programs.

He believes Boston State students are unique in academics and social college activities due to the nature of attending a commuting college.

Carol Strachan attended Boston State College for a year and a half after graduating from Roslindale High School. She interrupted her college career to work full-time as a mobile telephone operator for two years. As many Boston State students have done, Carol then combined a full-time job with a full-time evening schedule at State. When Carol began her Major requirements in Elementary Education she became a day student.

Carol is hopeful that she will find a teaching job, though the field is a tough one to enter into. The going has been hard, but with Graduation Day so close at hand she now finds herself saying "... it went by so fast! I'm glad I've done it and I'm much happier knowing that soon I will be a college graduate."

She will be graduating in June, 1980 with a major in Elementary Education and a minor in Special Needs. Carol will be appearing in the 1980 edition of Who's Who in American Colleges.

Khadija Jamal, a student at Boston State who is well known and respected by her fellow students is a Sociology major and an Afro Studies minor. After raising six children Khadija was motivated by her strong spirit and ambition to return to school. She was President of the Afro Student Association in her Freshman year, class President in her Sophomore year, Treasurer of the Student Government Association in her Junior year and as a Senior is now a peer counselor at the Student Center.

Khadija will graduate in June, 1980 and will be attending Boston University in the spring of 1981. She plans to become a probation officer.
